

Wal-Mart's Health Care Crisis

WAL-MART'S HEALTH CARE IS UNAFFORDABLE

- More than 600,000 Wal-Mart employees are not covered by the company's plan.
- A full-time Wal-Mart worker who chooses family coverage has to spend approximately 25% of his or her poverty-level earnings before Wal-Mart will cover any health care costs.

YOU PAY FOR WAL-MART'S POOR HEALTH INSURANCE

- Despite $10 billion in net profits, in almost every state where data has been released, Wal-Mart has more employees on public health assistance than any other company.
- In Wal-Mart's home state of Arkansas, for example, 4,000 Wal-Mart workers use public health care, costing taxpayers an estimated $16 million per year.

What You Can Do

1. Join America's campaign to change Wal-Mart at www.wakeupwalmart.com or call 1-866-253-1350. Wake-Up Wal-Mart is a grassroots movement of Americans who believe that by joining together we can change Wal-Mart.

2. Adopt-A-Wal-Mart & Build a Local Wal-Mart Action Team: Thousands of Americans are taking responsibility for changing Wal-Mart store-by-store. Adopt the Wal-Mart closest to you on-line or by contacting Wake-Up Wal-Mart.
